Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The members of the Stanley County Board of County Commissioners determined that a need existed to upgrade the court facilities in Stanley County, South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, The members of the Stanley County Board of County Commissioners determined it was altogether appropriate, fitting and proper to pay tribute to all the men, women and children of every race, creed and color, through whose combined efforts this area of South Dakota called Stanley County has been settled and developed; and,

WHEREAS, The members of the Stanley County Board of County Commissioners has now, with the intergovernmental help of the state of South Dakota, completed the refurbishing of its court facilities in a manner about which it has been written: "It is a courtroom that inspires tranquility; yes, a room that is genuinely unique, but without frills; in a word, a courtroom that is simplistically beautiful...Such are the people that developed Stanley County so it is only right this courtroom be dedicated in memory of those pioneers whose spirit it reflects."

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 7, 1989, as in South Dakota. On this day, all people across this state are asked to pause in prayerful thanksgiving to their Creator for having the privilege of living within a system where individual rights are guaranteed by law and in an area that has been developed by hard-working and God-fearing people that allows us to earn our livings, raise our families and thereby serve our fellowman in an atmosphere of mutual respect and caring.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
